

Marti Ayers

From: Heather H. Starnes
Sent: Thursday, May 19, 2016 1:40 PM
To: Marti Ayers
Subject: Re: FOIA SWPA-2016-00914f

Yes, please withdraw my request. For now I was able to get the information I needed.

Thank you for all your help.

Heather Starnes
Healy Law Offices

NOTE: The Missouri Bar Disciplinary Counsel and the Arkansas Bar require all lawyers to notify all recipients of email that (1) email communications is not a secure method of communication, (2) any email that is sent to you or by you may be copied and held by various computers as it passes through as it goes from sender to recipient, (3) persons not participating in our communication may intercept our communications by improperly accessing your computer or my computer or even some computer unconnected to either of us which the email passes through. I am communicating to you via email because you have consented to receive communications via this medium. If you change your mind and want future communications to be sent in a different fashion, please advise me at once. Thank you!

The information contained in this email is a privileged and confidential attorney/client communication. It is intended only for the use of the individual or entity named above. If the reader of this message is not the intended recipient, or the employer or agent responsible to deliver it to the intended recipient, you are hereby notified that any dissemination, distribution, or copying of this communication is strictly prohibited. If you have received this email in error, please notify us immediately at (501) 516-0041, or by replying to the message and deleting it from your computer. Thank you.

On May 19, 2016, at 12:42 PM, Marti Ayers <marti.ayers@swpa.gov> wrote:

Heather,

I have been advised you are withdrawing your freedom of information request. The last email I had from you was that you wished to put it on hold. Please send me an email withdrawing the above request if that is your wish.

Thank you.

Marti Ayers
Southwestern Power Administration